

Reconceptualizing International Order: Contemporary Chinese Theories and Their Contributions to Global IR

Online Appendix 2

All four Chinese scholars whose works are reviewed in this article have had some kind of policy influence as a result of their academic background and personal experiences. Table 1 below summarizes such background and experiences, as well as policy connections based on open sources.

Table 1: Policy Connections of Chinese IR Scholars

Chinese Scholars	Background and Policy Connections
Yan Xuetong	Professor and Dean, Institute of International Relations, Tsinghua University; Founder and Secretary-general, the World Peace Forum (A high-level, unofficial International Security Forum for policymakers and think tank experts from around the world to discuss international security issues); Adjunct professor, National Defense University.
Ren Xiao	Professor and Director, Center for Chinese Foreign Policy Studies, Fudan University; Formerly First Secretary, Political Section, Embassy of the PRC, Japan.
Qin Yaqing	Professor, Shandong University; Public Diplomacy Advisory Panel Member, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, China; Formerly President and Professor, China Foreign Affairs University.
Zhao Tingyang	Researcher, Institute of Philosophy, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences (a Chinese state research institute and think tank under China's State Council); Professor, Department of Philosophy, Graduate School of Chinese Academy of Social Sciences.