

Perspectives in the History of Economic Thought Book Series

Publication Date	Editor	Title	Publisher	HES Conference	Vol.
1989	Donald A. Walker	Classical and Neo-classical Economic Thought	Edward Elgar	1987	I
1989	Donald A. Walker	Twentieth Century Economic Thought	Edward Elgar	1987	II
1990	Donald E. Moggridge	Classicals, Marxians and Neo-Classicals	Edward Elgar	1988	III
1990	Donald E. Moggridge	Keynes, Macroeconomics and Method	Edward Elgar	1988	IV
1991	William J. Barber	Themes in Pre-Classical, Classical and Marxian Economics	Edward Elgar	1989	V
1991	William J. Barber	Themes in Keynesian Criticism and Supplementary Modern Topics	Edward Elgar	1989	VI
1992	S. Todd Lowry	Perspectives on the Administrative Tradition: from Antiquity to the Twentieth Century	Edward Elgar	1990	VII
1992	S. Todd Lowry	Contributions to the History of Economics	Edward Elgar	1990	VIII
1993	Robert F. Hébert	Themes on Economic Discourse, Method, Money and Trade	Edward Elgar	1991	IX
1994	Karen I. Vaughn	Method, Competition, Conflict and Measurement in the Twentieth Century	Edward Elgar	1992	X
1995	Ingrid H. Rima	The Classical Tradition in Economic Thought	Edward Elgar	1993	XI
1996	Laurence S. Moss	Joseph A. Schumpeter, historian of economics	Routledge	1994
1997	James P. Henderson	The State of the History of Economics	Routledge	1995
1998	Malcolm Rutherford	The Economic Mind in America: Essays in the History of American Economics	Routledge	1996
2000	David Colander	Complexity and the history of economic thought	Routledge	1998	