Food preferences determine human–elephant coexistence in African woodlands

María Montero-Botey, Alfonso San Miguel and Ramón Perea

SUPPLEMENTARY TABLE 1 Number and location of all farms surveyed during April–August 2016, with the time of visit and the team/organization involved in the visit.

District	Wildlife Management Area	Village	Number of farms sampled	Month of visit	Team/Organization
Tunduru	Nalika	Rahaleo	8	May	Selous Game Scouts
		Kajima	6	June	District Game Scout & Antipoaching unit of Songea
		Hulia	5	July	Village Game Scout
	Chingoli	Msiaje	3	July	District Game Scouts
		Chiwana	4	July	District Game Scouts
Namtumbo		Mandela	4	May	Ward teacher director
	Mbarang´andu (1)	Likuyu Seka Maganga	5	May	Ward teacher director
		Nambecha	4	May	Ward teacher director
	Kimbanda	Matepwende	1	June	District Game Scout
		Ligunga	1	June	District Game Scout
	Kisungule	Likusanguse	2	June	District Game Scout
		Sasawala	1	June	District Game Scout

Mandela is a village recently created, it was part of Likuyu Seka Maganga village and it is still in the process of defining its boundaries. (1) Wildlife Management Area with investor in 2015-2016.

SUPPLEMENTARY TABLE 2 Location of the farms surveyed by WWF from November 2015 to 2016.

District	Village	Number of farms damaged
Tunduru	Rahaleo	7
	Misiaje	5
Namtumbo	Nambecha	4
	Kilimasera	6