

Long-term Course and Outcome in Schizophrenia

The following life-course curves are presented in order of decreasing value of average score. The case number is the identifier assigned to a subject at the time of recruitment, and corresponds to the case history number in the associated file also posted on this website. (The number in parentheses following a case number labels the life-course curve in sequence, and is included merely for convenience.) The indices are as described in the manuscript “Long-term Course and Outcome in Schizophrenia”. The three values for “person-years in score category” are in the following order: mild, moderate, severe.
