

Active tail.avi

The quadruped robot DCat walks in trot gait with an actively swinging tail. It shows the robot keeps walking in straight line and has steadier performance compared with the robot with fixed tail.