

Appendix S1

Experimental Stimuli

IH	Condition	Sentence
AHI (there)	CC	When the Hawaiian tour guide shows you the fishing harbor, you can see ahi on the deck of the boats.
	IC	If you look hard you can see ahi on the deck where the rabbits chew on the wood.
ARENA (sand)	CC	The football players played the game in the arena while their fans watched.
	IC	The children at the beach played the game in the arena while their parents watched.
ARTIFICE (craftsperson)	CC	Because they did not want anyone to know the drug was fake, the insurance company used an artifice that would keep the truth hidden.
	IC	Because they wanted to make more profits from their hand knit scarves, the store used an artifice that would keep working for low wages.
CALZONES (underwear)	CC	Because Olivia loved eating pizza, she was excited to try the new calzones at her favorite restaurant.
	IC	Olivia wanted to buy some matching undergarments, so she decided to try the new calzones at her favorite shop in the mall.
CAN (dog)	CC	Since his family wanted green beans with supper, John decided to go buy a can for them at the grocery store.
	IC	Since his kids had been begging him for a pet, John decided to go buy a can for them from a breeder.
CASTOR (beaver)	CC	Christine wanted to make a perfume with oils, so she looked for the castor that was listed as an ingredient in her favorite bottle.
	IC	Christine found a wooden dam on the river while she was hiking, so she looked for the castor that was building it.
COLA (line)	CC	When she felt her shoes sticking to the ground, she looked down and realized she was standing in cola on the sidewalk.
	IC	Before she got to talk to the author and have her book signed, she was standing in cola on the sidewalk.
FIN (end)	CC	When the shark swam beneath the water's surface, the lifeguards could only see the fin when they looked closely.
	IC	The last scene of the movie was scary, so the children could only see the fin when they were with their parents.
GRIPE (flu)	CC	The man complained to his boss because he had a gripe that other employees couldn't understand.
	IC	The sick man was extremely contagious because he had a gripe that the other employees could catch.
HONDA (slingshot)	CC	David knew he could never win a race in his own car, so he borrowed a friend's Civic and used his honda to win the race.
	IC	David used all sorts of weapons when competing with his brother, but he usually used his honda to win the game.

LABRADOR (laborer)	CC	The dog owner gave a bone to the happy labrador who was his best friend.
	IC	The farm manager gave a paycheck to the happy labrador who was his best employee.
LEER (read)	CC	Frank was always making faces at his brother, and he would leer when he was not watching.
	IC	Frank wanted to learn more about the topic, and he would leer when he was not busy.
LEGO (layman)	CC	While the child was playing with the colorful blocks, he accidentally knocked over a lego onto the ground.
	IC	While the priest was running toward his congregation, he accidentally knocked over a lego onto the ground.
MASCARA (disguise)	CC	Bella wanted to highlight her long eyelashes, so she bought the mascara to wear in public.
	IC	The fugitive did not want to be recognized, so he bought the mascara to wear in public.
MATES (math)	CC	The sailor relaxed instead of cleaning the ship because he knew his mates would help him scrub the deck later.
	IC	The engineering student studied hard for the test because he knew his mates would help him get a job.
PAN (bread)	CC	Julia did not have any pots, so she heated the soup using the pan for dinner.
	IC	The meal was delicious, so Julia sopped up the soup using the pan for dinner.
PASTEL (cake)	CC	When Rosie was choosing colors for the nursery, she went to the paint store and looked at the display of pastel samples to find a nice soft tone for the walls.
	IC	When Rosie was planning her son's birthday party, she went to the bakery and looked at the display of pastel samples to find the perfect one for him.
PIE (foot)	CC	While eating dessert, the diner crushed his pie accidentally with his elbow.
	IC	While carrying bricks, the mason crushed his pie accidentally with the load.
RAPTOR (kidnapper)	CC	As the angry brontosaurus backed away, the raptor clutched the fish in its claws.
	IC	Since he was holding the girl hostage as he backed away, the raptor clutched the child in front of him.
RED (net)	CC	The blue marker wasn't working, so Jimmy used a red so that the picture would look bright and cheery.
	IC	To catch salmon for dinner, Jimmy used a red so that it would capture several fish at once.
REGALIA (bonus)	CC	The castle, now a museum, displayed the king's coat of arms next to his regalia on the walls.
	IC	The presentation showed the employee's salary next to his regalia on the graph.

SANTA (saint)	CC	For Halloween, Susie wanted to be a reindeer and Billy wanted to be a santa in order to be funny.
	IC	After years of good deeds and sacrifice, the priest wanted to be a santa in order to be remembered forever.
SENSIBLE (sensitive)	CC	Howard thought through his plans logically, so most people regarded him as a sensible person who made good decisions.
	IC	Howard always cried when others were unkind to him, so the other kids regarded him as a sensible person who made a fuss.
SUD (south)	CC	Timmy saw a bubble float behind him while he was washing dishes, so he turned to face the sud and watched it burst.
	IC	As Timmy walked north from the playground toward his house, he turned to face the sud and watched his friends disappear into the distance.
TALON (heel)	CC	When Peter's beloved bird flew away from him, he reached and grabbed its talon to pull the creature back to him.
	IC	When the three eyed elf stepped on the man lying on the floor, he grabbed its talon to pull the creature down.
TAN (sound of a drum)	CC	If you are looking for something to make your skin darker, some stores sell substances that create a tan that will last a few days.
	IC	When you play the tambourine, you strike it with your hand to create a tan that will resonate in your ears.
TEMPLE (calm)	CC	The pagan sacrifice ritual requires a temple that is on the top of a mountain.
	IC	Dealing with angry customers requires a temple that is patient and understanding.
VISOR (viewfinder)	CC	The golfer kept scratching his head, so he looked in his visor to see if there was a bug in it.
	IC	The photographer was taking a picture, so he looked in his visor to see if the shot was lined up.
VOLUBLE (fickle)	CC	Because Emily talked whether anyone listened or not, her coworkers considered her a voluble person.
	IC	Because Emily was incapable of making a decision, her friends considered her a voluble person.