

Joan P. Cioffi, PhD, Associate Director, Office of Public Health Preparedness and Response, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Dr. Cioffi serves as the Associate Director, Learning Office for the Office of Public Health Preparedness and Response (OPHPR), Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). In this role, Dr. Cioffi is responsible for developing and executing CDC's preparedness and response learning strategy. Her office has oversight and coordination responsibilities related to analysis, design, development, implementation, policy, and evaluation of workforce development programs that target CDC emergency responders, and external audiences, at the state and local levels, with public health preparedness and response responsibilities. Dr. Cioffi is the Program Official for the Preparedness and Emergency Response Learning Centers program (PERLC). CDC funds 14 Schools of Public Health to develop and implement competency-based preparedness training to support state, tribal, local and territorial public health agencies. She served as the Deputy Director for the WHO-CDC Collaborating Center for Global Public Health Workforce Development (2005 -2011).
